GIRLS' SOCCER

by Christine Scott and Vanessa Poulos

This year's team was coached by Tom "Tin Cup" Ostheimer. The aggressiveness, speed, and perseverance of the girls proved to shock many unsuspecting teams, namely Lee High School. Although losing three seniors, the future for this team looks promising.

BOYS' SOCCER

by Justin Mather and Shaylan Burkhart

The varsity boys' soccer team was not graced with a whole lot of luck this season. In a couple of games the sun made an appearance on the Mt. Everett side of the field. One such occasion was a win against their Southern Berkshire rivals, Lee High School. They were led this year by a new coach, Tom Morrison and senior captains Dave Ullrich and Will Bassett.

The Mt. Everett wrestling team performed well this season with an impressive 10-2 record in Berkshire County. Coaches David Lupiani and Dan Lanoue have taken this team far. This being their first year as head coaches, they brought wrestlers to a second place finish in Berkshire County. This year's departing senior captains, Matt Ketchen and Joe Kopetchny, leave a strong and highly motivated team.

The Lady Eagles

By Kristine Boardman

The lady Eagles were coached by James Edelman, a first year Mt. Everett varsity coach. This season's captains were senior Kristine Boardman and junior Jane Reilly. They faced many competitive teams and a challenging schedule. The first home game after a stretch of seven away games resulted in a victory over Hunter/Tannerville, 55-51. They played their best and appreciated all of the fans for their support.

The Cheerleading Squad

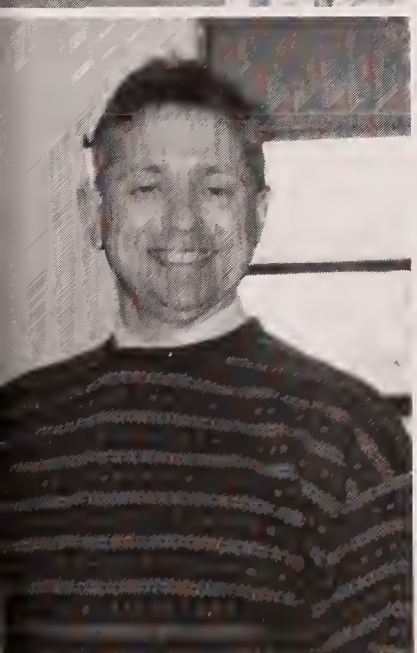

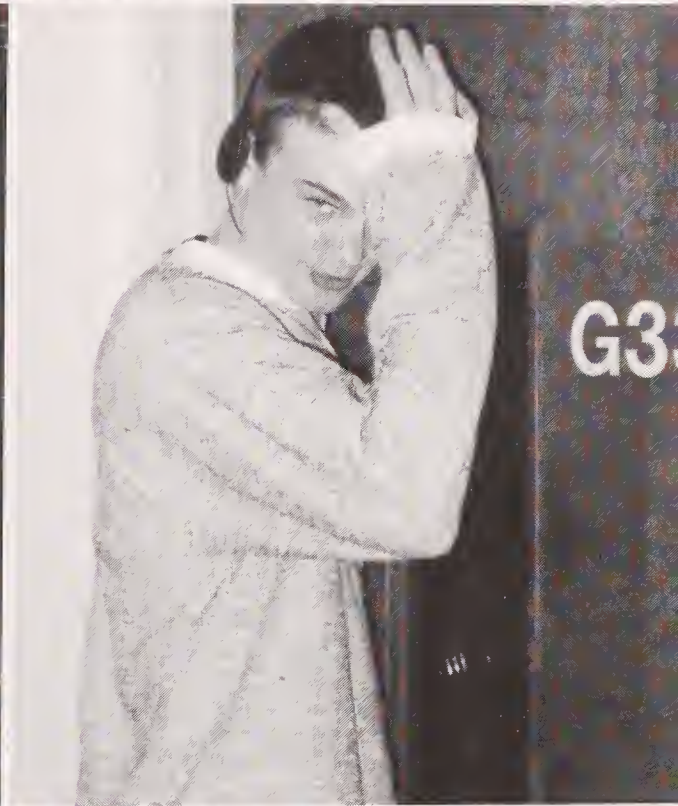

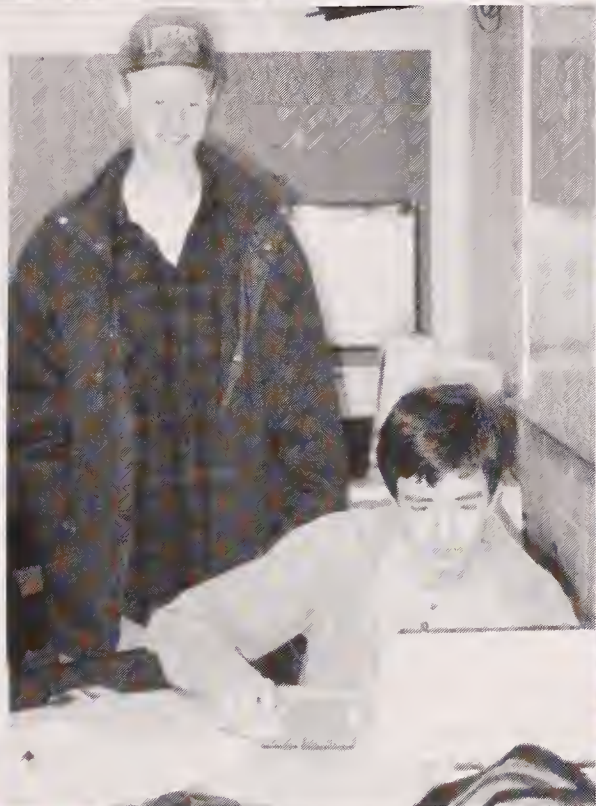

By Lee-Ann Agar

This year the cheerleading squad showed great school spirit with their new members and new dance routine. The team was coached by Mary Jane White and Amy Menin. Senior captain Katie Kopetchny and Sophomore captain Cara Storti really held the team together. By getting the crowd of fans involved, the support and school spirit was impressive.

DEDICATION

We dedicate this yearbook to
Mr. Thomas A. Consolati
Superintendent of the Southern Berkshire Regional School District

We thank Mr. Consolati for the twenty years he has spent with us as superintendent. Over the years his accomplishments have included a new building for Mt. Everett, a centralized campus for K-12, and locating Undermountain Elementary School at the Mt. Everett campus.

Good luck and best wishes to Mr. Consolati.

Our thanks to advertisers:
